Mr. King has disposed of his attractive home on Stambaugh street. Francis King will enter Stanford next semester to prepare himself for the medical profession.

Rodgers-Palmer Company secured the agency for the La Crosse Tractor for the counties of San Mateo, Alameda, Santa Clara and Santa Cruz, and the concern has located in the Peninsula building on Winslow street. Both young men are enterprising, industrious and honest and will do with the agency. During the week they sold four tractors. They sold one to E. A. Steel of Pigeon Point who is enthusiastic about the new machine. Mr. Rodgers has been a resident of the county since boyhood. The young men are receiving more orders than they can fill.

Miss Edna Young, the popular and efficient stenographer of Attorney J. J. Bullock is enjoying her vacation of two weeks with friends at Hopland, Lake county.

Judge Buck yesterday united in marriage in his chambers Enos Aragon, aged 48 and Mary Toro, aged 30, both of Redwood City.

Mario Bonifanti, found guilty last September for the crime of an assault to commit rape at Halfmoon Bay, was taken to San Quentin yesterday by Sheriff M. Sheehan. Bonifanti appealed his case and recently the higher tribunal denied his petition for a new trial.

H. N. Klee, through the real estate firm of Lambert and Walter, has leased the Thomas Tuttle home in Redwood Highlands. Mr. Klee is the superintendent of the Pratt-Lowe Preserving Company and will at once commence dismantling the home owned by the concern near Pescadero and moved the machinery here for the new establishment. Active work on the new plant is to begin at once.

ALL PAPERS FILED IN NORTHCOTT CASE

County Clerk Mrs. Elizabeth M. Nash has filed her transcript in the Dr. E. Northcott case on appeal containing all the papers filed in the celebrated case and the minutes of the trial together with the transcript of the evidence given at the trial prepared by the official court reporter, Lasher Gallagher. Also the opening and closing argument of the district attorney is included in the report prepared by the official reporter. Both transcripts were submitted yesterday to Judge Buck for his approval. Within ten days they will be filed with the court of appeals for the first district of California.

A decision may be rendered by the higher court within three months. Mrs. Nash's transcript contains 70 pages while that of the court reporter comprises 390 pages of closely written matter. Both papers were carefully prepared and are models of neatness.

Dr. E. Northcott was recently found guilty of murder in the second degree by a jury in the superior court. He was found guilty of the murder of Inez Reed, the army nurse. He was charged with performing an illegal operation upon the unfortunate woman.

Among those present were: T. C. Rice, A. McSwaney, William Short, A. S. Liguori, Frank Knippenburg, L. M. Giannini, Frank Risse, Frank Fitzpatrick, J. V. Swift, J. J. Bullock.

INHERITANCE TAX OF $49,800 PAID COUNTY IN PARROTT ESTATE

Last Tuesday the executors of the last will and testament of John Parrott, deceased, paid to County Treasurer P. P. Chamberlain the sum of $49,800, a tentative sum for inheritance tax. According to law the inheritance tax must be paid by the estate within 18 months after the filing of the petition for probate. However there is also a statute which permits an executor to pay an estimated amount paying the balance when the estate is settled. Therefore the amount paid by the executors of the Parrott estate is not the full amount. There will, no doubt, be a small sum coming from the big estate later on. The executors of the last will and testament of Abbie Parrott, mother of the John Parrott, deceased, recently paid into the county treasury as inheritance tax the sum of $33,000. These amounts are forwarded to Controller Chambers who in turn pays it over to the State Treasurer.

AN IOWAN IN CALIFORNIA RECENTLY SOLD HIS LARGE HOLDINGS IN IOWA

W. R. Bloom of this city returned recently from Iowa where he went a month ago to dispose of a portion of his property located in Hancock county. Mr. Bloom was almost overcome by the intense heat of that place and was glad to get back to California. The Des Moines Register of recent date contained the following article concerning Mr. Bloom:

One of the largest real estate deals ever pulled off in Hancock county has been completed by W. R. Bloom, who sold three of his improved farms east of Klemme consisting of 240 acres each, 720 acres in all, for $172,000, each 240 being sold to an individual purchaser at an average of almost $240 an acre.

Mr. Bloom acquired the first tract twenty-eight years ago and the last part of it about ten years ago, the price he paid ranging from $20 to $48 per acre.

Mr. Bloom now resides at Redwood City, California, where he is engaged in the lumber and timber business on a large scale. He formerly lived at Klemme and was in the grain and stock market for years and was a well known and progressive business man. He started in business there with about $500 borrowed capital.

He still has 320 acres southeast of Klemme highly improved which is known as the "Red Cloud ranch" and which he says he will keep for a "nest egg." It is worth at the same average about $80,000.

AMERICAN CITIZENRY IN SYMPATHY WITH IRELAND

That the great heart of the American citizenry beats with sympathy for the people of Ireland in their struggle for freedom is shown by the interest taken in the agitation now going on in America on behalf of those down-trodden people who have been under the tyrannical heel of England for 700 years. They are anxious to break the chains that bind them and in their efforts they have the sympathy and good will of every true American. Samuel M. Shortridge, California's noted lawyer and orator in his address last week in the St. Francis hotel, before the Women's Irish Educational League summed up the situation correctly in his great speech, as follows:

That the present question agitating Ireland is a problem neither of religion nor of politics. Not of religion since the greatest patriots—men who sacrificed all, home, life and loved ones for the freedom of their own cherished country were Protestants. Yet every Catholic acclaims with reverence, love and loyalty, Robert Emmett, Grattan, Montgomery and Wolf Tone, and they followed these undaunted leaders through blood and death for the freedom of their Ireland.

Politics have never entered this question. All Ireland was ever one; inspired with one idea, under one leader—to win back their one land to their nation ever since. This battle was incessantly waged in unity for over seven hundred years.

And now the Peace Conference in Paris gives freedom to Bohemia, Servia, Jugoslavia and to Poland; yet this same conference leagueed together for right and justice refused to include Ireland—a nation centuries old, a nation bruised and struggling; a nation sighing and praying for the dawn of sweet freedom.

The Irish ask for their freedom, and let the civilized world remember that in granting it they are doing homage to the most civilized and cultured people of all Europe. Be it remembered that when the Huns of old swept down from the north they leveled every vestige of civilization and left in their wake naught but destruction, devastation and total barbarity.

Ireland—the land of saints and scholars was alone untouched and straightway sent forth her civilization which penetrated France into the southern confines of Spain, then throughout Germany the northland and even to the very heart of Rome.

Should the League of Nations forget this? Should the greatest benefactor of the world be denied by an ungrateful, what is hers by rights that are inalienable?

Should Ireland be now turned aside with cold contempt, Ireland that has given to the world so many statesmen, scientists, lawgivers, jurists, doctors, poets and warriors?

The whole world is protesting and that is why we welcome to our shores the President of the Irish Republic, that is why all fair minded men and women are leaguering for that which the American constitution gives to her people, the right to life, liberty and happiness.

WATSON-EINSTEIN NUPTIALS

For some weeks it was noted about that pretty Miss Florence Einstein was engaged to be married to a young man. The rumor was confirmed during the week when it became known that Miss Einstein and James Watson of Burlingame have announced their betrothal. The young couple will be married next October.

The bride elect is the youngest daughter of Mrs. G. Einstein of the city. She is an unusual beautiful and charming girl, popular with a host of friends throughout the peninsula. Miss Einstein is a popular Yeomanette employed by the government at the Federal wireless station at Palo Alto. She enlisted during the war. She is an attractive and talented girl.

Mr. Watson is a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Watson of 707 Highland avenue, San Mateo, and is engaged with his father in the building business. He is a brother of William Watson, Jr., a teacher at the Mary and Ruth Watson. He is well known as a motor boat enthusiast and, like his fiancée, has a wide circle of friends in San Mateo county who will offer their felicitations on the happy announcement.

POSTMASTERS TO MEET AT SANTA CRUZ IN SEPTEMBER

The reduced summer excursion rates which are in effect to Santa Cruz from mail points throughout the state has lost the convention of the National League of Postmasters, California Branch, from Redwood City to Santa Cruz. While Redwood was practically the unanimous choice of the Third and Fourth Class Postmasters as their convention city for 1919, all things being equal in the matter of expenses, yet the convention rates which are much higher than the summer excursion rates to Santa Cruz forced the executive committee to decide upon the popular city by the sea for the meeting place. Owing to the claims of the Third and Fourth Class Postmasters which their representatives have presented and now have in consideration before the present United States Congress, upon which they anticipate favorable action, the 1919 convention promises to be one of the most important and interesting sessions of the postmasters for the past several years.

Mr. C. F. Keller, of Inglewood, California, who has been president of the state branch since the inception of the league in California has expressed his desire and intention to retire from office at the coming convention, owing to the fact that he has given up active postoffice work and has moved with his family to Santa Cruz. From the present outlook it would appear that State Secretary-Treasurer John E. Cowgill, of San Carlos, will succeed to the state presidency without opposition, and that Mrs. Luella J. Matlock, the present assistant secretary, will be the unanimous choice for secretary-treasurer. Mrs. Matlock has made on enviable record since her appointment by the secretary some months ago, having put her home county, Tehama, at the top with a 100 per cent membership and hence she deserves well from the membership and representatives of the league. The convention will be called for Friday, September 26th to 30th.

SAN CARLOS NOTES

It has been rumored that a party is now negotiating for the purchase of a tract of land closely adjacent to San Carlos, on which they purpose to establish a sanitarium. This report has brought a thunderous war-whoop from every man, woman and child in San Carlos which will penetrate the board of supervisors' room at Redwood City, our war paint is on and a petition of protest is being circulated which will carry the name of every elector. The people of San Carlos are in sympathy with those who are afflicted with the great white plague but they cannot permit our superior residential district to also become contaminated when there is no necessity for it, when there are locations equally as good and tracts of land to be had suitable for the location of institutions for the domestic of these unfortunate, and where they will not jeopardize the health of those who are well.

Mr. D. L. Coulter of Detroit, Michigan who is in California looking after the interests of his company the D. M. Ferries' company is visiting at the homes of his brothers O. L. Coulter of Redwood and L. B. Coulter of the Morse Gardens here.

Mr. J. S. Blankton and family have taken apartments at the Powers' Bungalows for the summer. Mr. Blankton is connected with the Schillings people in San Francisco. The Blanktons have taken temporary residence here with the intention of buying and building a home after they have tried out our superior climate and found it to be all we claim.

Mr. Valentine Treat who has been absent in New York for the past two or three years returned to San Carlos last Saturday bringing with him one of New York's popular belles as a bride and a fine bull terrier pup. They have moved into Mr. Treat's bungalow which was occupied by the Petersons up to a few months ago, and until they bought their own home at Easton.

W. D. McDonnell and wife motored up from their home at Fresno for a visit with Mr. McDonnell's sister, Mrs. F. Lippman at Laurel Nook.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Fisher were here for the week-end at the home of Mrs. Fisher's mother, Mrs. R. P. Hurlbut. The Fishers have been honeymooning by auto in western Nevada and at the various resorts in the Sierras. At the time the young couple were tied together some months ago Mr. Fisher's business in San Francisco was too pressing for them to leisurely enjoy this delectable period in life's pathway only in anticipation of the time when business was not so urgent and they could take their time in sipping the nectar of the gods.

Mrs. Sarah D. Smith from Los Banos is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Chas. B. Marvin.

Mr. L. B. Bridges, ticket stock clerk in the S. P. building, San Francisco, while out on the road, lining up the agents on how to handle the new form of communication tickets was a visitor to San Carlos. Some of the agents had made the mistake in stamping the coupons of the tickets so that they were sending the passengers west when they wanted to go east and vice versa, until they had the conductors going both ways.

Malcolm J. Hoon, S. P. agent at San Lucas, has taken a vacation of several months from his railroad position and has gone into the grain exporting business for one of the big export firms of San Francisco. Mr. Hoon was a visitor at the Cowgill home last week.

Mrs. Robert Little and her sister, Miss Elizabeth McNally of Pasadena motored up from the south and were the guests of their old friend, Mrs. W. Lippman while they were arranging to book passage for Europe and a tour of the continent.

Miss Marguerite Wilms and her mother motored over from Modesto for a day's visit with Mrs. Wilms' sister, Mrs. Chas. B. Marvin, last week.
